

REMAKE

Make it easy to tell your story, everywhere.

Make like lightning.

Video outperforms everything. And although it's easier than ever to make, it's expensive and complicated to localize.

Enter ReMake - a radically efficient and cost-effective localization platform that enables teams, by integrating seamlessly with their tech stack, to release creativity, optimize content, and scale campaigns.

- At least x30 faster campaign production for every screen size and platform
- Save up to 90% on campaign production and localization costs
- Move fast, learn more and outmanoeuvre the competition.

82% of all consumer internet traffic in 2022 will be video. Make sure yours is optimized for every audience with ReMake.

Adapt any asset, for every screen.

Some call it Adobe's missing button. We just call it ReMake.

Packed with ground-breaking features, ReMake is the ultimate campaign power-up. The only localization platform to automate the production process without forcing brands into predefined templates that bend or break their creative.

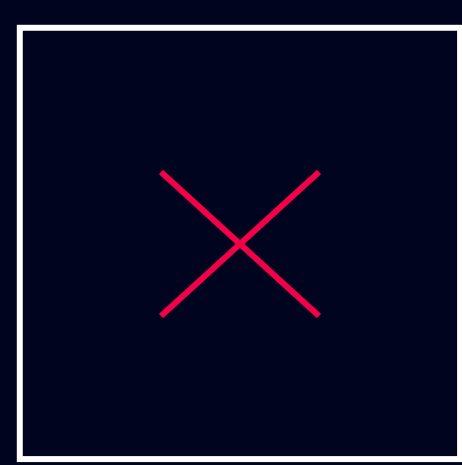

Volume Versioning

Pull reactive data into your creative so you can generate an unlimited amount of data-driven content in moments.

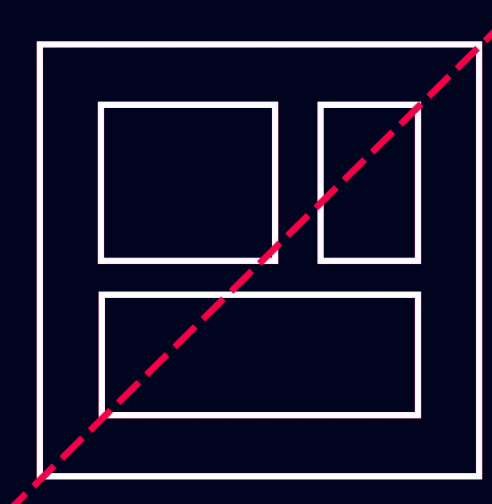

Volume Adapt

Apply changes to an unlimited number of assets, across sizes and edits, in just a few clicks.

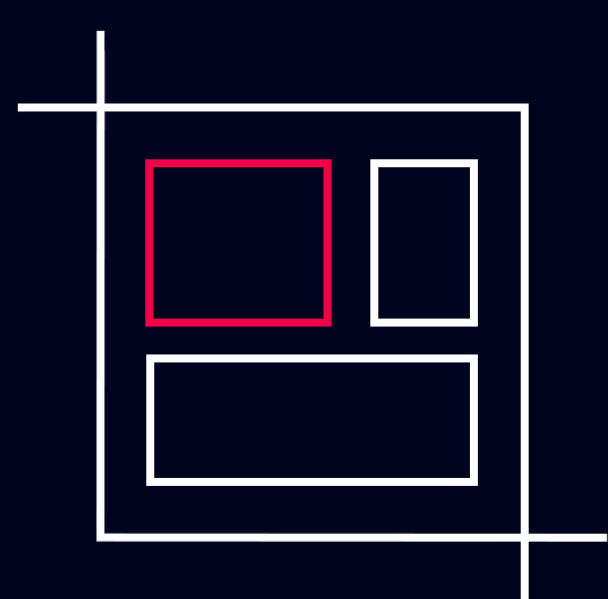

Hyper-focused

Unparalleled simplicity - ReMake doesn't sacrifice common sense in favor of redundant features and over-complication.

Template killer

Protect your brand with native Adobe integration baked in, you can work with your assets exactly as prepared.

Design IQ

Make resizing simple. Design IQ ensures that all content is ReMake ready in the formats you want, at no extra cost.
